FOLLOWING WEEK 2nd November NO MEETING

Lebbie, a Rotarian from the Harare Club in Zimbabwe, attended our last Rotary meeting and spoke about the Satellite school located 50 km north of Harare which her Club is helping them get a building and arranging a water supply for it. She did not tell us about herself so as requested by the Editor she has sent the following.

"I am from Harare Zimbabwe and visiting my 2 out of 3 sons. Max, my eldest who lives and works in Perth and Bernard, my youngest, who started University in Brisbane in July 2026. My middle son, Robert, is in Zimbabwe and is waiting to complete his Culinary studies in Switzerland, in February 2027. I am a co-owner/Director of a Company that specializes in Contract Management through the supply and maintenance of Hydraulic equipment and Labour in the mining, manufacturing, agriculture and construction sectors. I have been in Australia since 25 September and will be leaving on the 21st of October 2026. My visit has been totally amazing.

I was so honoured to have been warmly welcomed at Como Club."

It was a pleasure to have Lebbie visit our Club and we wish her a safe journey home.
